

MASON SIDDICK

Head Coach

OCCUPATION

Henry M. Jackson

Educator & Coach

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

As a player, he was a standout at Lake Washington High School and went on to play football at Carroll College in Montana, where he was a first-team all-conference defensive lineman and co-captain on the Fighting Saints' 2010 NAIA national championship team. Siddick was part of three national titles during his playing career at Carroll. Coach Siddick has played 11 different sports competitively throughout his lifetime. A true competitor!

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Siddick was an assistant at Carroll for five seasons under head coach and six-time national champion Michael Van Diest. His players describe him as inspirational and a great motivator!

Coach Siddick took over the head coaching position at Henry M. Jackson in 2019, just 1 season before the COVID-19 pandemic turned high school football upside down. His focus on building great men who play football is a hallmark of his coaching philosophy.

GOALS

"The ultimate goal is to build a championship caliber program. One that embodies strong character, conviction and grit. A program that values education and brotherhood and strives every day to be 3 Strong".
